

Can you change your name on ANA flights? (Follow-Guidelines)

Many travelers ask, can you change your name on ANA flights, and the answer is yes, but only under specific conditions because All Nippon Airways (ANA) has a strict policy that allows name corrections and legal updates while prohibiting full ticket transfers to another person

+1-877_624_1038. ANA permits minor corrections, which include fixing typos, correcting small spelling errors, or adjusting misplaced letters in a passenger's first or last name to ensure that the ticket details match the passport or government-issued identification exactly

+1-877_624_1038. These small corrections are usually processed quickly and may not involve extra fees depending on the fare type and booking channel, but ANA always recommends making corrections as early as possible to avoid airport complications +1-877_624_1038. For major legal name changes, such as those resulting from marriage, divorce, or a court-issued name change order, passengers are required to submit valid legal documentation like a marriage certificate, divorce decree, or court order before ANA will update the booking

+1-877_624_1038. However, ANA does not permit full transfers of tickets to different passengers, meaning the ticket always remains tied to the original traveler even if their legal name changes +1-877_624_1038. To request a name correction, passengers can reach out directly to ANA customer service, visit a ticket counter at the airport, or contact the travel agency or third-party booking platform where the original ticket was purchased, as some corrections must first be processed by the issuing source +1-877_624_1038. International travel adds another layer of importance since the name on the ANA ticket must exactly match the passport, and even small discrepancies can lead to denied boarding, additional screening, or delays during immigration checks +1-877_624_1038. The fees for ANA name changes depend on the ticket type, with minor corrections often free or involving minimal charges, while legal name changes requiring ticket reissuance may incur reissue fees and potential fare differences

+1-877_624_1038. Passengers are advised to carefully review all booking details immediately after purchase so that any mistakes can be corrected early, avoiding last-minute stress or higher costs +1-877_624_1038. Overall, the answer to can you change your name on ANA flights is yes, but only for genuine corrections or legal name updates, with no option to fully transfer a ticket to another traveler, thereby ensuring compliance with international travel laws and ANA's security standards +1-877_624_1038. By understanding the airline's policy, preparing valid documents when necessary, and acting promptly to resolve discrepancies, passengers can ensure smooth travel with All Nippon Airways without unnecessary disruptions
