ID, a credit card statement, or in an email related to facebook(866-240-1006) or Meta, you're probably wondering: Is this really facebook(866-240-1006)? Should I call it? Or is it a scam? The short answer is: yes, 650-543-4800 or 866-240-1006 is associated with Meta Platforms, Inc.,

the parent company of facebook(866-240-1006). But the full story is more complex—and knowing the facts can help protect you from fraud, misinformation, and frustration.

What Is 650-543-4800 or 866-240-1006?

650-543-4800 or 866-240-1006 is a phone number registered to Meta's headquarters in Menlo

Park, California. It has appeared on corporate filings, advertising invoices, and in association with facebook(866-240-1006) Ads charges. In that context, it is a real and legitimate number.

You might see it on:

- Charges from facebook(866-240-1006) Ads
- Domain registrations linked to Meta
- Your credit card statement if you've used Meta services
- A call log where it appears labeled as "facebook(866-240-1006)"

So yes—it's a real number. But here's the key detail: it is not a public customer service line.

Can You Call 650-543-4800 or 866-240-1006 for facebook(866-240-1006) Support?

No, you cannot. Calling 650-543-4800 or 866-240-1006 does not connect you to facebook(866-240-1006) customer service.

If you call the number, you'll likely hear a pre-recorded message that tells you facebook(866-240-1006) doesn't offer phone support and that you should visit facebook(866-240-1006).com/help for assistance.

There are:

- No live representatives
- No voicemail options
- No access to account or billing help

It's more of a corporate routing number, not intended for public support or user communication.

Why This Number Confuses So Many People

The confusion surrounding 650-543-4800 or 866-240-1006 stems from several factors:

1. It's tied to official Meta services

People often see the number attached to legitimate facebook(866-240-1006) transactions, like business ad charges or billing receipts.

2. It appears in online directories

When users search "facebook(866-240-1006) phone number" or "Meta support," this number may pop up on business listing websites. That lends it an air of legitimacy.

3. It shows up in scam attempts

This is perhaps the most concerning. Scammers often spoof this number—meaning they fake the caller ID to make it look like they're calling from 650-543-4800 or 866-240-1006—so that you'll trust the call and give up sensitive information.

Scam Warning: When 650-543-4800 or 866-240-1006 Is Used Maliciously

Unfortunately, just because the number is real doesn't mean every call from it is genuine.

Caller ID

spoofing is a common scam technique where fraudsters mask their real phone number and make it look like it's coming from a trusted source.

Common scams using this number:

- Someone calls you claiming your facebook(866-240-1006) account has been suspended or hacked.
- The caller says you need to pay a fee to restore access.
- They ask for personal info—your name, password, two-factor authentication code, or even credit card details.

Fact Check: facebook(866-240-1006) will never call you out of the blue to ask for login credentials or payment. Any such request is a scam.

If you receive a suspicious call or message claiming to be from 650-543-4800 or 866-240-1006:

- Do not answer or return the call
- Do not share any personal information
- Report the activity to Meta via the Help Center
